

Do you have what it takes?

The Air Force Reserve Command is looking for Traditional Reservists, Air Guard Reserve (AGR), and Air Reserve Technicians (ART)s. SSgt (with one year time- in-grade) to MSgt, who are interested in filling military training instructor (MTI) positions at the 433rd Training Squadron, JBSA Lackland, Texas.

A graphic titled "MTI Incentives" with a blue background. At the top, it says "Develop America's Airmen Today..." and "...For Tomorrow". Below the title, there is a list of incentives and two images of military hats. The incentives listed are: Special duty pay $450/month (30 days of orders), Awarded MTI Ribbon, Leadership & supervisory experience, Greatly improved work ethic, Outstanding time management skills, Immediate and lasting feeling of job satisfaction, and Extremely limited deployments.

Develop America's Airmen Today...
...For Tomorrow

MTI Incentives

- Special duty pay $450/month (30 days of orders)
- Awarded MTI Ribbon
- Leadership & supervisory experience
- Greatly improved work ethic
- Outstanding time management skills
- Immediate and lasting feeling of job satisfaction
- Extremely limited deployments military service (TAFMS) less than 16 years; and a minimum score of 49 in general area on the Armed Forces Vocational Aptitude Battery (AS-VAB) test.

If you have what it takes to give back to the next generation, please contact us for more information.

Currently, 20 Traditional Reserve members from around the country serve as MTIs. The 433 TRS is in search of high-quality Airmen to fill 25 MTI vacancies. Some of the requirements are: excellent military image and appearance; minimum fitness score of 80 on last two fitness tests; ability to speak clearly; total active federal

SMSgt Edward Youmans
DSN 473-7589/2410 or (210) 671-7589/2410
433TRS.RECRUITING.us.af.mil
edward.youmans.3@us.af.mil